TWO RESOLUTIONS OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE
OF BULGARIAN COMMUNIST PARTY

PARTY OFFICIALS EXPELLED

The following resolution of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party was signed by Vulko Chervenkov, Secretary-General of the Bulgarian Communist Party, on 17 March 1951.

A. Kula Okoliya

After examining the facts of crude perversions of party and government policy permitted to occur at Rebrovo and other villages in Kula Okoliya, consisting in violations of the principle of voluntary cooperation of working peasants and violations of the people's democratic laws (a bureaucratic and indifferent attitude towards the needs of peasants, individual cases of illegal arrests, cases of rough treatment, mandatory fines, etc.), the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party adopted the following resolutions:

1. To dismiss the members of the Kula Okoliya Party Committee.
2. To call immediately an okoliya party conference at which the activity of the dismissed okoliya committee will be examined to indicate measures for the improvement of party political work in the okoliya, and to elect a new okoliya party committee.
3. To expel from the party ranks, dismiss as chief of the agitation section at the Kula Okoliya Party Committee, and hand over to the judicial authorities Slavcho Ivanov; expel from the party ranks and hand over to the judicial authorities Pero Zhikov, chairman of the Kula Municipal People's Soviet; and Ivan Florov, chairman of the Rabrovo Village People's Soviet, Kula Okoliya.

4. To call seriously to the attention of the Vratsa Okrug Party Committee (Comrade Ninko Stefanov) the failure of the party political work and revolutionary vigilance in Kula Okoliya. To demand that the committee take effective measures for definite improvement in the organizational and political work of the party in Kula Okoliya and the entire okrug and to demand party disciplinary action and state prosecution of those who have violated party and government policies.

B. Teteven Okoliya

In connection with the flagrant violation of Dimitrov's Constitution and the People's democratic laws at Yablanitsa, Teteven Okoliya, consisting of depriving individual farmers of their legal rights and, in effect, making out-laws of them, the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party resolves:

1. To disband the primary party organization at Yablanitsa, Teteven Okoliya.
2. To order the Teteven Okoliya Party Committee to re-enroll the party members and form a new party organization.
3. To require the Teteven Okoliya Party Committee to aid the Party organization at Yablanitsa in consolidating and improving the political work of the Party in the village.
4. To require the Pleven Okrug Party Committee (Comrade Sava Dulbokov) to give serious attention to the violations of the people's democratic laws in Teteven Okoliya and to require the party committee to demand party disciplinary action and state prosecution of party members who have been guilty of these violations, taking all the necessary measures for eliminating and preventing the occurrence of any violation of the people's democratic laws and of party and government policies in the okrug.

C. All Party Committees

The Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party requires that all okrug, okoliya, city, and rayon party committees study the present resolution and make sure that it is studied by the primary party organizations. Measures should be adopted to strengthen the people's democratic laws, to improve party political work, and to extend and strengthen the ties with the working masses.

POLITICAL EDUCATION OF PARTY MEMBERS

With the purpose of strengthening the political education of administrative party personnel and their ties with the working people, the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party adopted the following resolution on 24 March 1951.

1. Okoliya party committees must organize systematic political instruction for the secretaries of village party organizations, for party organizations in farm workers' cooperatives, for Communists, such as chairmen of village people's soviets and secretaries of the primary organizations in the okrug center. This instruction should be conducted personally by the secretaries of okoliya party committees, according to the plan approved by the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party.
2. City and rayon party committees must organize systematic political instruction for secretaries of primary party organizations at cities and city rayons. This instruction should be conducted personally by the secretaries of city and rayon party committees, according to the plan approved by the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party.
